Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Tim Brown

After completing a National Diploma in forestry at Newton Rigg college, Tim worked as a contract harvester in Scotland and across the north west of England for several years. Then, he decided to diversify into the Arboriculture sector of the industry. Once he completed the 10 Week Arboriculture Course for Craftsman at Merrist wood in Guildford, Tim worked for several small and large companies in the Midlands undertaking all aspects of the tree surgery industry. After several years as a Senior Crew Leader, Tim undertook his Arboricultural Association Technicians Certificate, which enabled him to move into consultancy and contract management for commercial and utility sectors. Tim moved to the Bedford office of Bartlett in December of 2010 where the office has steadily grown to receive Arboricultural Association Approved Contractor Status and win the Bartlett Tree Experts "Most Improved Office 2012".
